COLLECTIVE ACTION UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

-----X

Plaintiff Heber Noe Lopez Soliman (“Plaintiff Lopez” or “Mr. Lopez”), individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, by and through his attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon his knowledge and belief, and as against St. Rita Corporation (d/b/a Broadway Bagels), (“Defendant Corporation”), Mike Mai and Fermin Doe, (“Individual Defendants”), (collectively, “Defendants”), alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff Lopez is a former employee of Defendants St. Rita Corporation (d/b/a Broadway Bagels), Mike Mai, and Fermin Doe.
2. Defendants own, operate, or control a Bagel Shop, located at 2658 Broadway, New York, NY 10025 under the name “Broadway Bagels”.

3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendants Mike Mai and Fermin Doe, serve or served as owners, managers, principals, or agents of Defendant Corporation and, through this corporate entity, operate or operated the Bagel Shop as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiff Lopez was employed as a cook at the Bagel Shop located at 2658 Broadway, New York, NY 10025.

5. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff Lopez worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage and overtime compensation for the hours that he worked.

6. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked and failed to pay Plaintiff Lopez appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

7. Defendants' conduct extended beyond Plaintiff Lopez to all other similarly situated employees.

8. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Lopez and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

9. Plaintiff Lopez now brings this action on behalf of himself, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the "NYLL"), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys' fees and costs.

10. Plaintiff Lopez seeks certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of himself, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff Lopez's state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

12. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a Bagel Shop located in this district. Further, Plaintiff Lopez was employed by Defendants in this district.

PARTIES

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

20. Defendants operate a Bagel Shop located in the Upper West side section of Manhattan in New York City.

21. Individual Defendants, Mike Mai and Fermin Doe, possess operational control over Defendant Corporation, possess ownership interests in Defendant Corporation, or control significant functions of Defendant Corporation.

22. Defendants are associated and joint employers, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

23. Each Defendant possessed substantial control over Plaintiff Lopez's (and other similarly situated employees') working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of Plaintiff Lopez, and all similarly situated individuals, referred to herein.

24. Defendants jointly employed Plaintiff Lopez (and all similarly situated employees) and are Plaintiff Lopez's (and all similarly situated employees') employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and the NYLL.

25. In the alternative, Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiff Lopez and/or similarly situated individuals.

26. Upon information and belief, Individual Defendant Mike Mai operates Defendant Corporation as either an alter ego of himself and/or fails to operate Defendant Corporation as an entity legally separate and apart from himself, by among other things:

- a) failing to adhere to the corporate formalities necessary to operate Defendant Corporation as a Corporation,
- b) defectively forming or maintaining the corporate entity of Defendant Corporation, by, amongst other things, failing to hold annual meetings or maintaining appropriate corporate records,
- c) transferring assets and debts freely as between all Defendants,

- d) operating Defendant Corporation for his own benefit as the sole or majority shareholder,
- e) operating Defendant Corporation for his own benefit and maintaining control over this corporation as a closed Corporation,
- f) intermingling assets and debts of his own with Defendant Corporation,
- g) diminishing and/or transferring assets of Defendant Corporation to avoid full liability as necessary to protect his own interests, and
- h) Other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

27. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiff Lopez's employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff Lopez, controlled the terms and conditions of employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff Lopez's services.

28. In each year from 2019 to 2020, Defendants, both separately and jointly, had a gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

29. In addition, upon information and belief, Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce. As an example, numerous items that were used in the Bagel Shop on a daily basis are goods produced outside of the State of New York.

Individual Plaintiff

30. Plaintiff Lopez is a former employee of Defendants who was employed as a cook.

31. Plaintiff Lopez seeks to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. 216(b).

Plaintiff Heber Noe Lopez Soliman

32. Plaintiff Lopez was employed by Defendants from approximately August 2019 until on or about February 7, 2020.

33. Defendants employed Plaintiff Lopez as a cook.

34. Plaintiff Lopez regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as food and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

35. Plaintiff Lopez's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

36. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Lopez regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

37. From approximately August 2019 until on or about February 7, 2020, Plaintiff Lopez worked from approximately 6:00 a.m. until on or about 3:00 p.m., 6 days a week (typically 54 hours per week).

38. Throughout his employment, Defendants paid Plaintiff Lopez his wages in cash.

39. From approximately August 2019 until on or about February 7, 2020, Defendants paid Plaintiff Lopez a fixed salary of $120 per day.

40. Plaintiff Lopez's pay did not vary even when he was required to stay later or work a longer day than his usual schedule.

41. For example, Defendants required Plaintiff Lopez to work an additional 2 hours past his scheduled departure time on five occasions, and did not pay him for the additional time he worked.

42. Plaintiff Lopez was not required to keep track of his time, nor to his knowledge, did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device such as punch cards, that accurately reflected his actual hours worked.

43. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Lopez regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

44. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Lopez an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

45. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Lopez, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Lopez's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Defendants' General Employment Practices

46. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Lopez (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying him appropriate minimum wage and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

47. Plaintiff Lopez was a victim of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying him the wages he was owed for the hours he worked.

48. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff Lopez not receiving payment for all his hours worked, and resulted in Plaintiff Lopez's effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

49. Defendants habitually required Plaintiff Lopez to work additional hours beyond his regular shifts but did not provide him with any additional compensation.

50. Defendants willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the FLSA and NYLL by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

51. Defendants paid Plaintiff Lopez his wages in cash.

52. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

53. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff Lopez (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff Lopez properly for his full hours worked.

54. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

55. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiff Lopez and other similarly situated former workers.

56. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Lopez and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

57. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Lopez and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any “doing business as” names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

58. Plaintiff Lopez brings his FLSA minimum wage, overtime compensation, and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons (the “FLSA Class members”), i.e., persons who are or were employed by Defendants or any of them, on or after the date that is three years before the filing of the complaint in this case (the “FLSA Class Period”).

59. At all relevant times, Plaintiff Lopez and other members of the FLSA Class were similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants’ common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required minimum wage, overtime pay at a one and one-half their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek under the FLSA, and willfully failing to keep records under the FLSA.
